v.

City of Madison, Wisconsin Department
Of Workforce Development, Ray Allen
and Jim Chiolino,

Defendants.

Hon. Richard G. Niess

Case No. 2017-CV-000555

Case Code: 30701- Declaratory Judgment

ORDER GRANTING DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

Plaintiffs Amy Lynn Photography Studio, LLC (“the Studio”) and Amy Lawson, having filed a verified complaint seeking, among other things, declaratory and injunctive relief from the City of Madison’s public accommodations law, §39.03(5) of the Madison General Ordinances; and Defendant City of Madison, having moved the Court to dismiss Plaintiffs’ Verified Complaint for, among other reasons, failure to state a claim; and the Court having reviewed the briefs and supporting documents submitted by the parties, and having heard and considered the arguments of counsel for the parties at a motion hearing on August 1, 2017; and upon agreement between the City of Madison and Plaintiffs, as stated on the record, that under the factual allegations pled in the Verified Complaint, Amy Lynn

Photography Studio, LLC is not a public place of accommodation or amusement under §39.03(2) of the Madison General Ordinances;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECLARED that a declaratory judgment is granted, resolving all claims and with each party to bear their own costs and fees.

The terms of the declaration are as follows:

For the reasons stated by the Court on the record on August 1, 2017, under the factual allegations plead in the Verified Complaint, the Plaintiffs are not places of public accommodation or amusement under §39.03(2) of the Madison General Ordinances.

Dated this 23rd day of August, 2017
