

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL GRIFFETH

1. I am competent to make this declaration, and I make this declaration based on my personal knowledge.

2. I am the father of S.G. and N.G.

3. My wife, children, and I reside in Georgia.

4. N.G. is in her senior year of high school at Calvary Christian School in Columbus, Georgia.

5. N.G. is currently taking dual credit courses at Truett McConnell University, a religious university that offers religious undergraduate degree programs and has a religious mission.

6. N.G. would have considered taking dual credit courses at Luther Rice College and Seminary if Luther Rice offered dual credit courses. But Luther Rice does not offer dual credit courses because Luther Rice is not an approved school for Georgia's Dual Enrollment program.

7. N.G. has taken dual credit courses in psychology, history, algebra, and English at Truett McConnell. Luther Rice offers courses in those subjects. But Luther Rice does not offer such courses as dual credit courses because Luther Rice is not an approved school for Georgia's Dual Enrollment program.

8. It is important to our family that N.G. take her high school courses, including dual credit courses, at a school that shares our family's biblical worldview.

9. Luther Rice shares my family's biblical worldview.

10. N.G. is interested in pursuing a career in the medical field.

11. If Luther Rice were approved for State financial aid, N.G. would consider taking core-curriculum undergraduate courses at Luther Rice. But because Luther Rice is not approved for State financial aid, she is not considering taking such courses at Luther Rice.

12. When N.G. graduates from high school, she will be eligible for the HOPE and Zell Miller Scholarship programs and possibly other Georgia student aid programs.

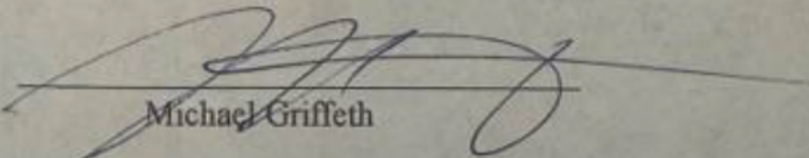

13. S.G. is a sophomore at Albany State University.

14. S.G. participates in the HOPE Scholarship program.

15. An important factor in S.G.'s choice for an undergraduate institution was whether the school participated in State financial aid.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Executed this 18 th day of October, 2024, in Harris Co, Georgia.

Michael Griffeth